

WORKMEN STARTED trenching operations on North Indian Avenue this week for the first main sewer line for the new sewer plant, voted by the voters of Palm Springs earlier this year. The first project will cost $85,000 for the main line improvements on both Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive. This project is only part of the overall sewer plan, with the balance of the lines to be put in when the streets will not be torn up during the winter season in the resort community. During the winter season the council hopes to start construction on the new processing plant. (Desert Sun Photo).

Henderson Sells Desert Magazine After 21 Years

PALM DESERT—Desert Magazine, founded here 21 years ago by Randall Henderson, will have a new owner and publisher, effective Sept. 1.

Henderson said the new owner and publisher is Charles E. Shelton, head of a newly formed corporation that will take over the extensive printing operations connected with Desert Magazine.

SHELTON HAS published newspapers in Arizona and Glendora for the past 11 years, Henderson said.

Henderson, who has devoted almost 30 years to publishing newspapers and magazines in El Centro, Blythe, Calexico and Palm Desert said he will retire from active management of the magazine.

However, he plans to remain as an editorial advisor to the new publisher.

HENDERSON FOUNDED the Desert Magazine here in 1937, after spending more than 30 years in the newspaper publishing field in Blythe and Calexico.

DESERT MAGAZINE, Henderson noted, "is the only journal devoted exclusively to the past history and present welfare of the fast-growing desertland of America."

Since its inception, the magazine, Henderson said, has championed better roads, water and wildlife conservation, improved living conditions and anti-litter campaigns for desert communities in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah.

Our Proposal

U.S., Russia Join In Space Flight

MOSCOW (UPI)—Scientists meeting here have discussed a U. S. proposal which could put Americans and Russians side by side in the first ship that carries a crew into outer space, it was reported today.

American sources said the plan, proposing cooperation rather than competition, in some areas of space research, was mentioned—but not formally submitted—to the resolutions committee of the International Geophysical Year Assembly at a meeting Wednesday.

THEY EXPLAINED the proposal will not be introduced formally here because it is already pending before the International Council of Scientific Unions.

Foreign delegates expressed some interest in the plan.

"The United States appears to think there are certain spheres of space research where there should

'Human Torch' Dies, Believed Victim of Bombing Attempt

PONTIAC, Mich. (UPI)—Human torch Frank Kierdorf died today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital only hours after police produced a witness who saw a Flint arson job on which he was believed to have been burned.

Doctors said Kierdorf's heart apparently stopped beating at 9:23 a.m. (p.d.t.) but he wasn't pronounced dead until 2:30 a.m.

DR. NORMAN Gehring, who said earlier today the chances

Kidnaper of Peter Weinberger Set To Die Tonight

OSSINING, N. Y. (UPI)—Angelo John La Marca was scheduled to die in Sing Sing's electric chair tonight for the 1956 kidnap-slaying of little Peter Weinberger.

La Marca exhausted his final legal remedy Wednesday.

Only a reprieve by Gov. Averell Harriman or intervention by a U. S. Supreme Court justice can forestall La Marca's electrocution scheduled for 8 p.m. (p.d.t.). Both steps were regarded as unlikely.

La Marca's final legal request—An application for a writ of habeas corpus—was turned down Wednesday by Federal Judge Carroll C. Hinks in New Haven, Conn.

La Marca, father of two children, admitted he snatched the Weinberger baby from a patio behind the Weinbergers' Long Island home July 4, 1956, then left him to die in a roadside ditch. Although he requested ransom ranging from $2,000 to $5,000 he never actually tried to collect the money.

that Kierdorf would live 24 more hours were "one in ten," made the death pronouncement.

The 56-year-old ex-convict who was business agent for a Flint Teamsters Union local, had staggered into the hospital early Monday with burns over 85 per cent of his body.

He said he had been turned into a human torch by two unidentified men who "took me for a ride," but police have been breaking down his story piece by piece.

STATE ATTORNEY General Paul Adams early this morning confirmed that police had in protective custody a witness to the explosive burning of a dry cleaning establishment at Flint.

He also disclosed that Kierdorf's missing uncle, Herman Kierdorf, was a "definite suspect" in the arson job.

TAYLOR SAID THAT a half hour before Kierdorf died, the victim apparently roused from his coma and tried to raise his arms and speak.

But he was not able to talk. "I don't think Kierdorf made an honest statement at any time since he arrived at the hospital," Taylor said.

Adams held a news conference here to reveal his belief Kierdorf was a victim of his plot to blow up the dry cleaners.

"We are still checking any angles in the case, mainly trying to determine if Kierdorf had been assigned by the union to destroy the cleaners."

Kansas Has Wind, Thunderstorms

United Press International A band of thundershowers accompanied by strong winds swept Western Kansas Wednesday night with one-half inch of rain reported at Goodland and winds gusting at 65 miles per hour at Garden City.

Elsewhere, the weather was quiet with only sprinkles of rain reported from the lower Great Lakes to the Central Plains and in Florida and the Northwest.

The rains were generally light although Akron, Ohio, reported nearly one-half inch.

Power Fails, No Explanation

Cause of a 20 minute power failure which cut electricity off in downtown Palm Springs this morning, was still listed as due to an undetermined cause at noon today.

Caletric officials said today that the failure was not caused by work that is being done on a switch on a pole near the intersection of Andreas Road and Indian Avenue, but that a by-pass line from the central power station may have become overloaded.

All power was off in the business section of town from Amado to Industrial Place.

Tax Rates To Go Up And Down

City to Show Increase, School District Decrease

Property tax rates traveled in two directions — up and down — for resort area taxpayers today.

Taxes in the City of Palm Springs rose 4.9 cents, but dropped 3.2 cents in the Palm Springs Unified School District for the 1958 fiscal year.

TENTATIVE TAX figures were released by City Finance Director Shelby Langford and Schools Supt. Wallace Muelder following compilation of assessed evaluation figures for utilities.

The county auditor's office released total assessed property evaluations for the city and school district yesterday.

County officials said the total assessed evaluation for Palm Springs is $39,267,370, including a figure of $3,262,550 listed as utilities evaluation by the State Board of Equalization.

PROPERTY EVALUATION for the school district was rated at $100,714,240, including the utility evaluation and unsecured property. However, the district tax rate is computed on secured evaluations of $96,293,250.

Langford said the total tax rate for Palm Springs will be about $1.189 for an increase of 4.9 cents over last year's rate.

CITY MANAGER R. W. Peterson said he had previously hoped the rate would be set at $1.17, but he was then looking forward to property evaluation in excess of $60 million.

In the school district, Muelder said the new tax rate represented a drop of 3.2 cents below last year's rate of $1.33.

Langford added the note that city taxpayers may be in for an even bigger increase if the City Council decides to proceed with its sewer bond project at its Aug. 27 meeting.

The city finance director explained that the tax rate may be increased by as much as 15 1/2 cents if the sewer program proceeds this year.

U.N. Assembly Meeting May Start Friday

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Western diplomats predicted the U. N. Security Council would act quickly today to set up an emergency session of the General Assembly on the Middle East beginning Friday. Indications were the sessions would be on U. S. terms.

The council, summoned by Russia, was scheduled to meet this afternoon.

It had two resolutions to consider, one by the United States and the other by Soviet Russia, both calling for an emergency convocation of the 81-member assembly.

OLIVER SUGGESTS YULE GIFT FOR ALASKAN KIDS

Harry Oliver, the oldest "desert rat" of them all, today came up with a new idea in the way of Christmas gifts for the young residents of the nation's newest state.

Oliver, bewhiskered lord of Ft. Oliver at Thousand Palms, proposed an airlift of hot desert sand as a gift for the youngsters of Alaska.

Speaking to a group of desert area children, Oliver suggested that Santa Claus dump 10 plane loads and an equal number of "reindeer loads" of sand in the coldest part of Eskimo-land real estate.

"It would make a big pile—a sand pile that Eskimo children could play in when it's so very, very cold in mid-February," Oliver theorized.

Oliver suggested that the members of his young audience "ask their dads if they will furnish the nice, warm desert sand, if Santa does the hauling."

MOVING THE BIG PALM tree in front of the Lone Palm Hotel is just part of the clearance program to make ready for the widening of North Indian Avenue from Paseo El Mirador to some 200 feet north of Chuckawalla Road. Massey Construction Corporation of India was awarded the contract for the widening and paving of the road for $17,- 990.24, by the City Council this week. The City of Palm Springs, unable to get bids on the clearing of the rights of way along the avenue, took on the job under separate contracts and has completed the project. The utility companies will change poles and the road will be finished before the start of the fall season. (Sun Photo).

Thousand Palms Chamber Is Incorporated

THOUSAND PALMS — Articles of incorporation for the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce were filed with the Secretary of State today, following last week's election of chamber officers.

Officers and directors of the newly incorporated organization, which has been an unincorporated agency since 1947, are: Mrs. James A. Welcome, president; Laurence D. Bowman, vice president; Mrs. George Orwig, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Nelson, treasurer.

Directors for two years are Walter G. Bovee and Karyl Thompson. Directors for one year are Miss Helen Hyde and Henry M. Lennie.

D. D. Wallace, first president of the chamber, is also immediate past president and ex-officio board member. Attorney Bernard M. Malin, of Palm Springs and Beverly Hills, represented the corporation in the filing of its articles.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Locally heavy thundershowers and possible flash flooding this afternoon and tonight. Partly cloudy Friday with diminishing thundershower activity. Little temperature change with highs today from 98 upper valleys to 110 lower valleys.

Yesterday's high was 110, low 77.

Plastic Balloon With Monkey Collapses at 60,000 Feet

CROSBY, Minn. (UPI)—A gigantic plastic balloon containing a female monkey, frogs and goldfish as passengers collapsed today at 60,000 feet about an hour after it started a 25-mile trip to the stratosphere.

Air Force spokesmen said it would have been the largest plastic balloon ever launched.

A Winzen Research Laboratories official here said it was not known what caused the failure. He did not know whether the monkey or other contents of the balloon survived.

A SIMILAR LAUNCHING attempt on July 30 failed when the balloon of about the same size was destroyed by sharp air currents at 40,000 feet.

The balloon soared skyward from an open-pit mine near here at 4 a.m. (p.d.t.). The Air Force lost contact with it at 5 a.m.

The monkey was strapped with photosensitive plates to measure the cosmic rays. The Air Force stressed that the flight was planned to insure the monkey would not be harmed as a result of the test.

THE FROGS AND goldfish, as well as onions and potatoes, were sent aloft to study any cell damage that might occur at the 25-mile altitude.

In addition, fruit flies and a type of fungus, neurospora, were included in the cargo to see if cosmic rays cause any genetic or hereditary changes.

The giant balloon, made of thin polyethylene plastic, measures 233 feet in diameter and weighs 650 pounds. It has a capacity of five million cubic feet when inflated to its fullest.

Check of Hoffa Testimony Asked By McClellan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chairman John L. McClellan called today for a Justice Department investigation of possible perjury in Teamster President James R. Hoffa's testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee.

The Arkansas Democrat said conflicts between Hoffa's testimony last fall and the sworn statements of former heavyweight boxer Embree Davidson made necessary an investigation "to determine who perjured himself."

"Definitely, such conflicts could hardly be any misunderstanding," McClellan said.

He also observed that the records appeared to back up the story Davidson gave the committee today.

"Either Davidson perjured himself or Hoffa was not telling the truth when he testified before," McClellan said.

Youth Suffers Knife Cut in Game With Pal

The naked blade of a knife proved a painful toy for 19-year-old Scotty Norris yesterday.

Police said that Norris, of 726 Date Street, suffered a two-inch gash when he said, he was "playing with knives" with a friend, John Laster, 21, of 637 Sage Street.

Norris was patched up at Desert Hospital and released after receiving a few words of caution from Detective Carroll Vogelaar.

Macmillan Plans Talks on Cyprus

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan made an all-out bid today to end three years of bloodshed on Cyprus and head off the threat of war between Greece and Turkey.

Macmillan was flying to Athens for emergency talks with Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis on means to halt the costly intercommunal disorders on the strategic island colony in the Mediterranean. About 450 persons have been killed since the underground Eoka launched its anti-British campaign three years ago.

One Carried Cargo Of Gasoline

Ships Continue Burning Five Hours After Crash

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI)—Two tankers, one loaded with a million gallons of gasoline, crashed in flames in thick fog today, killing at least 15 men and injuring 36.

At noon, five hours after the collision, nine bodies were found entombed below decks in the larger of the two ships. Six other men died when they leaped into the fiery sea after the collision off Fort Adams.

OF THE INJURED, 31 were held in hospitals for treatment and five were released. Several of the hospitalized were reported in critical condition from burns.

The ships, the 10,000-ton S. S. Guilfoil out of Philadelphia, and the coastal tanker S. S. Graham, collided in a half-mile channel at the entrance to Narragansett Bay. The collision occurred with sight of the still-beached wreckage of the Norwegian freighter Vebteville, which ran aground last September.

THE GUILFOIL skipper, Capt. M. Eden, Port Arthur, Tex., perished with his ship, which ran aground off Fort Adams. Flames and smoke spewed from both vessels five hours after the collision, punctuated by a rocking explosion.

The Graham burned fiercely at the southern tip of Rose Island in Newport Harbor. At one time, the heat was so intense that fireboats could not get near the vessel and it had to be towed off the shore.

The Graham carried a crew of 12.

NAVY CHIEF PETTY Officer Thomas Wright of the Newport Naval Base reported that a crew from the Navy oiler Salamone found the nine bodies below decks. He said the vessel still was burning at noon.

Engineer Melvin J. Wroten, aboard the fully-loaded Graham, said "it was like a stick of dynamite. It was awful and it was beautiful and, oh my God, I lived through it."

Wroten was the last to leave the Graham with Capt. Karl Anderson, Chester, Pa. He said the fire flashed along the port side of the ship, then gasoline-fed flames licked to the starboard side where the men were attempting to launch a lifeboat.

"WE ALL RAN forward," he said, "and dove into the water. By the time the lifeboat hit, it was all a flame. But most of the men were calm and all but one boy wore lifejackets. I got to him a few minutes after we were in the water."

"Fire was everywhere. I didn't even see the other ship."

Wroten said it was "like watching my home go boom." He said after he was picked up by a coast guard boat, "I sat down on the deck and just shook. There was nothing else to do."

The Guilfoil, launched in 1943 at Sparrows Point, Md., and owned by the Gulf Oil Corp., delivered 120,000 barrels of oil Wednesday at Providence and was sailing in ballast for Port Arthur, Tex.

The Graham, owned by the S.E. Graham Transportation Co., Gladwyne, Pa., was also loaded with gasoline.

Model Airplane Contest to Be Fair Feature

Contest flying of gas powered, model airplanes will afford keen competition for the youngsters, and thrills for adults at the Farmers Fair of Riverside County, to be held at Hemet, Aug. 20-24.

Two age groups will compete in each of two contests, Irvin Robinson, superintendent of the model show division said in announcing the special contests. The juniors will be those to and including the age of 16, with the open contest for those over 16 years.

THE STUNT competition provides a contest of the flyer's skill in executing a prescribed stunt pattern. The contestant will be judged on points of smoothness of fly, and precision of execution of such maneuvers as, wing over, inside and outside loop, inverted flying, and horizontal, vertical and figure eights, from the moment he begins to start the engine of his model.

In the combat contest, flyers are paired off in their first flight, then the winner of each flight again paired off for successive flights until the final winner is determined.

A CREPE PAPER streamer is attached to the rear of their airplane. Their opponents then attempt to cut the streamer of the competing airplane providing near-misses, crack-ups, mid-air crashes, etc., all for thrills of spectators.

Planes are flown on the end of two 60 foot lines and each flyer must maneuver his ship by staying within a circle of 5 foot radius.

Scholarship Offered Winner Of College Name Contest

Here's your chance to be the winner of the first scholarship offered for the new desert area junior college!

Just come up with a name for the college-to-be and receive a $100 scholarship, which you may present to the student yourself. The scholarship contest, sponsored by The Desert Sun and the Indio News and Date Palm, is open to all residents of the Coachella Valley Junior College District.

Follow these contest rules and fill out the entry blank that appears below:

1. Entries may be submitted by any resident of the Coachella Valley Junior College District.
2. Each person may submit only one entry.
3. Entries will be accepted from July 10 to the Nov. 1 deadline for contest consideration.
4. In case of a tie, the same name submitted by several individuals, the first person to submit an entry will win the award.

5. The scholarship may be used only for the new college. The winner at any time may name a student to receive the $100 total scholarship to be used for his education, the $100 to be held in trust by the college board until claimed.

6. The entries will be considered by the board of judges to be selected by the two newspapers sponsoring the contest.

7. The college board is not obligated to accept, adopt or use the name selected as the name of the junior college.

8. Entries must be mailed to Junior College Name Contest, Coachella Valley Junior College, General Delivery, Palm Desert, Calif. The winner will be announced Nov. 6. Entry blanks will be published regularly in the newspapers sponsoring the contest.

Ripley Housing Project Now Up to Board

The Board of Supervisors received this week and filed without action an opinion from county counsel on the status of the proposed Ripley housing project and ordered a copy of it sent to Mrs. Clyde Glenn who recently urged the board to do everything possible to prevent construction of the housing units even though the project was approved by the voters of the Ripley area.

Assistant County Counsel Leo A. Deegan told the supervisors that they may consider the fact of the voters approval in reaching their decision as to whether they will approve the project, but are not necessarily bound to approve the project simply because the majority of the electorate favored it.

"It is our opinion," said Deegan, "that the matter of approval of a proposed low rent housing project is at the discretion of the Board of Supervisors, to be exercised on the basis of all material, circumstances and conditions."

Board Receives Opposition Note To Road Route

The Associated Chambers of Commerce which takes in Twenty-nine Palms, Joshua Tree, Yucca Valley, Pioneer Town, Palm Wells and Morongo Valley, all in San Bernardino County, advised the Board of Supervisors this week that they are opposed to the Dry Morongo Canyon route approved by the State Highway Department as a freeway between Highway 60-70-99 north of Palm Springs and Morongo Valley.

The Morongo Valley Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Associated Chambers, expressed approval of the route in a letter to the supervisors two weeks ago.

Inactive Special Districts May Be Dissolved

Ray T. Hicks, county auditor-controller, requested this week that proceedings be instituted to dissolve several inactive districts so that final disposition may be made of their fund balances. The request was referred by the Board of Supervisors to county counsel.

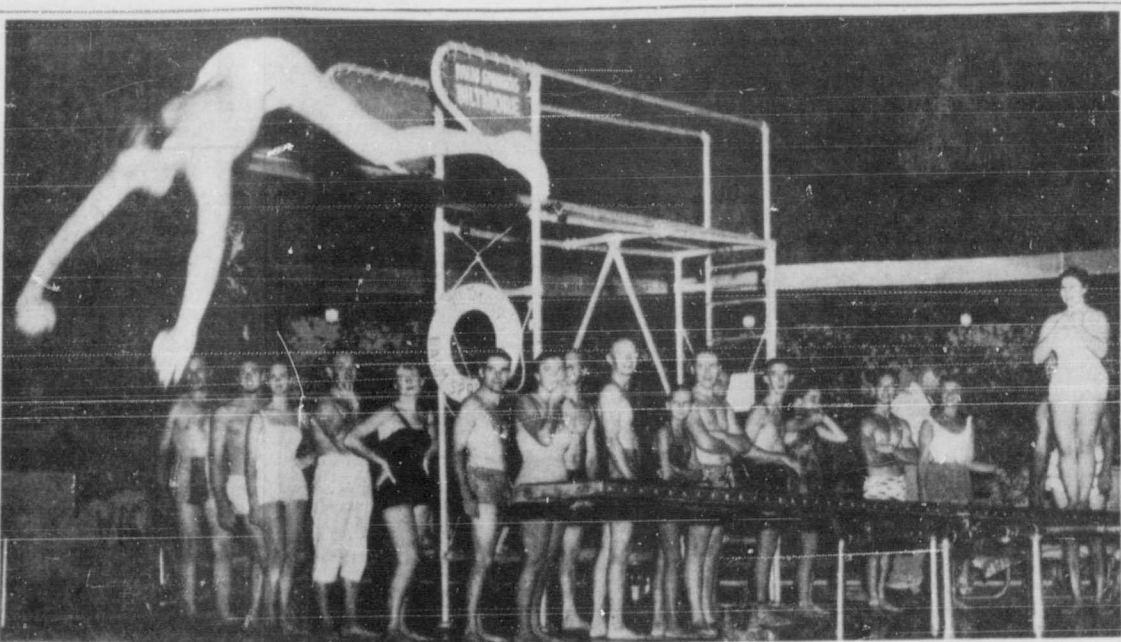

The districts named by Hicks are the Hemet Irrigation District with a balance of $887.34; San Jacinto Levee District, $240.94; Indio Permanent Road District, $3,195.97; Coral Reef Permanent Road District, $2,625.92; and County Improvement Districts 4, 5, 6 and 8, $2,797.20.

Indio Substation Jail Load Up

Immediate employment of a communications operator at the Indio sheriff's substation to relieve a deputy sheriff from desk work for field duty was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week.

Sheriff Joe Rice said that in the past three months since the Indio city jail was closed and the county jail took over the housing of city prisoners, bookings have increased heavily over the same period of 1957. In June of 1957, 97 prisoners were booked while in June, 1958, 198 were booked.

The larvae of the pronuba moth eat the seeds of the yucca plant, which is fair enough since there would be no plants without the moths, the National Geographic Society says. The yucca's pollen is meager and too sticky to be moved by the wind. When the mother moth lays her eggs in a blossom, she gathers pollen from its anthers and places it on the stigma, thus fertilizing the plant's eggs. When the young hatch they find a banquet of seeds awaiting them. What they do not eat propagates the yucca.

THE DARING YOUNG MAN of the Biltmore diving board is just following the leader in one of the many games played by guests at the weekly Poolside Picnic at the hotel. People standing in line along the pool are waiting their turn to go off the board and into the water. Other games include the thrilling "watermelon race" in which contestants push watermelons through the water with their heads. A big buffet is available along with barbecued chicken and hamburgers. Adults and children are all invited. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Grand Jury Committee Recommends Site Purchase for Hall of Records Building

Immediate purchase of land as a site for a Hall of Records building for Riverside County was urged this week by the 1958 Grand Jury's "committee on county space requirements." The Board of Supervisors referred the committee recommendation to Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen for consideration and report.

Brawley Joins in Appeal for State Action

The City of Brawley in Imperial County notified the Board of Supervisors this week that they are urging the State Division of Highways to take immediate action to eliminate the hazardous traffic conditions along Highway 60-70-99 between Whitewater and Thousand Palms caused by drifting sand.

Traffic stemming from Imperial County makes considerable use of the highway and its diversion to other routes has been threatened because of the drifting sand menace.

The first balloon tires on U. S. cars were introduced in 1922. The first stop sign to control traffic was installed in Detroit in 1914.

Ocotillo Lodge Sale Denied By Alexander

Resort developer George Alexander today emphatically denied the reported sale of his luxurious Ocotillo Lodge and branded any rumors to the contrary as "complete falsehoods."

Alexander, who shares principal ownership of Ocotillo with Joe Dunas, said he had been approached on the sale of the lodge by a Washington State firm about a month ago.

"A PROPOSAL TO purchase the lodge had been made," Alexander said, "but we declined the offer."

Alexander stated that he has never contemplated the sale of the East Palm Canyon Drive resort apartment and hotel development and added the comment: "I doubt if it will ever happen."

Rumors on the sale of the lodge, completed last fall at a cost of about $900,000, have filtered through the Village for the past two weeks or more. It was rumored yesterday that the "transaction" had entered escrow with a purchase price of $3 million.

ALEXANDER SAID that the price offered by the northwest bidders was in the neighborhood of that amount, but, he pointed out, "we turned down that offer and that's the last I heard of it."

"I don't know how these rumors got started or where these people are getting their information, but it isn't true," Alexander declared.

Squelching any continuance of the reported rumors revolving around the 10-acre development now valued in excess of $2 million, Alexander noted that he is not contemplating any future negotiations for the sale of Ocotillo.

DHS Legion Post to Meet Thursday Night

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Officers and committees of Desert Hot Springs American Legion Post 763 will meet tonight at the home of Commander Ted Fournier, 65-849 Acoma.

Legion leaders plan discussion of ways and means projects and proposed increases for the welfare fund.

Commander Fournier also announced his appreciation of nine citations received by the DHS post from District 21 headquarters, the California Department of the Legion and the National Legion. The citations were awarded for exceeding, by 100 per cent, last year's post membership and other services.

Miller Acquital Is Ordered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Court of Appeals today ordered that playwright Arthur Miller be acquitted of contempt of Congress charges arising from his appearance before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1956.

Miller is the husband of actress Marilyn Monroe. The 42-year-old dramatist, winner of a Pulitzer prize for his play "Death of a Salesman," was convicted two years ago for refusing to name persons present with him at a 1947 meeting of writers alleged to have Communist connections.

The nation's first torpedo boat was the Stiletto, outfitted in 1887 at the Herreshoff boat yard in Bristol, R.I.

School board members looking on as Muelder ended his last Board of Education meeting are, left to right, Don Williams, Charles Wallace and Dr. Bernard Poliak. Muelder, whose resignation takes effect Aug. 31, reports to the University of Southern California Sept. 2 to begin his new duties as a professor in the university's College of Education. ## Judge Grants Injunction Against Union

Superior Court Judge Bertrum Jones granted a preliminary injunction this week against the Culinary and Bartenders Union Local 535, after deliberating some four months.

The action will stop any picketing of three Palm Springs restaurants, Saddle and Sirlon, Lyon's Palm House, and the Racquet Club until after the court trial is held sometime this fall.

Representing the three restaurants is the law firm of Slaughter, Schlesinger and Schlecht, which early in May asked for and was given a temporary restraining order by Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe. The action by Judge Jones followed a hearing on the restraining order.

Warren Slaughter built the case for the local club and restaurants on a decision handed down in the Supreme Court of the State of California which decreed that it was illegal and unions could be enjoined if they picketed an establishment for the purpose of inducing an employer to enjoin his employees to become members of the union.

In the two hearings that have been held in Indio Courts, Slaughter has shown by affidavits from employees of the local restaurants that they do not want to be represented by the Culinary and Bartenders Union Local 535.

Hoover Favors Pensions for Ex-Presidents

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Former President Herbert Hoover — a wealthy man who is said to have given away his presidential salary for humanitarian purposes — favors a pending bill granting pensions to ex-presidents.

Hoover, who will be 84 next Sunday, gave his views on the proposed $25,000 a year pension Wednesday before leaving for New York.

He said former presidents become "semi-public servants" taking on public duties and serving as chairmen of civic and charitable organizations.

Hoover estimated that both he and former President Harry Truman write 4,000 to 5,000 letters a month, practically all as a matter of public duty.

"I think a pension ought to be given and ought to be accepted," he said. "It could be used either to support the families of former presidents or it could be used for charity."

Dogs Warned, Behave in Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — The city council health committee has voted to curb dog owners. The committee recommended passage of an ordinance carrying fines up to $200 for dog owners whose pets are indiscreet anywhere but in alleys or streets.

Communist Propaganda War Extends to South America

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI) — The Communist diplomatic offensive has been officially and formally extended from the Middle East to Latin America. The propaganda war is now officially on in America's "backyard."

The new move stems from a joint decision of the Kremlin and the Red Chinese regime in Peking.

IT WAS TAKEN at the secret three-day talk last week in Peking between Soviet Premier and Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev and Red Chinese Leader Mao Tse-tung.

What can be expected from it is an all-out propaganda assault on the Latin American nations, with the United States as the chief target of the attack.

WITHIN 48 HOURS of the decision, Peking in fact opened up its guns with a broadside attack on the United States' alleged "enslavement" policy on the Latin American continent.

The Red bloc's decision emerged from the joint Sino-Russian communique issued in Peking Sunday at the conclusion of the Mao-Khrushchev secret talks.

RED CHINA and the Soviet pledged themselves formally then and there to "give firm support to the just struggles of the people."

Henrys Purchase Rupp's Supply In Cathedral City

CATHEDRAL CITY — Well known Cathedral City residents Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. (Herb) Henry are the new owners of Rupp's Supply at 68-778 Grove at Broadway.

Desert residents for the past 16 years, he established the City Auto Service in 1947 and just recently sold out his interest to "Red" Manthey, his partner since 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry will continue the same policy of operation adhered to in the past four years by former owner Ray Abbey.

Sprague Resigns Defense Post

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Assistant Defense Secretary Mansfield D. Sprague resigned Wednesday for "purely personal" reasons involving family and financial considerations.

President Eisenhower nominated Deputy Assistant Defense Secretary John N. Irwin II, a New York City lawyer, to succeed him.

Tired Tires

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (UPI) — Careful driving can double the life of your car's tires, according to H.M. Craig, Executive Director of the Minnesota State Automobile Association.

Craig said an investigation of drivers whose tires wore out after six to 10 thousand miles show they drove at high speeds, made quick starts and stops, carried the wrong amount of air in their tires or bought them at "bargain" sales.

Kurdish Tribesmen in Iraq Appear Friendly to Regime

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The tough, traditionally armed Kurdish tribesmen of Northern Iraq presented the new Iraqi regime with one of its biggest question marks. Would they accept the change in government or would they be hostile? United Press International correspondent Dan Gilmore went to Kirkuk to find out.)

By DAN F. GILMORE
United Press International

KIRKUK, Iraq (UPI)—The new regime in Iraq appears to be winning allegiance from the tough, independent-minded Kurd tribesmen who for generations successfully defied Turkish, Russian, British, French and Arabic domination.

One of the big uncertainties of the Iraqi situation was the position that the strong-willed Kurds, who control this oil-drenched northern area, would take to the Republican regime.

SO FAR, THEY are publicly pledging support to the successors of King Faisal and Premier Nuri Es-Said.

But they have their own language, religion, customs and ideals. A cherished hope, supported by Britain and the United States during and after World War I, is an autonomous Kurdistan.

This would include the mountainous belt reaching to Turkey through Northern Iraq, Iran and into Russia itself.

NO REALIST THINKS such a Kurdistan will evolve in our times. But the nascent tribalism of the Kurds is undoubtedly causing some preoccupation to the new Iraqi authorities.

The fact is the Kurds are not Arabs. They never have been and by all indications never will be. The Kurds, who number about 150,000, are as different from the Iraqi people as their cool and green mountainous country is from the flat, scorching desert land to the south.

THEY TRADITIONALLY carry arms even when at peace. It is customary for them to lay the arms aside when entering cities, but I saw two or three toting rifles in Kirkuk.

If they ever did take up arms against the new regime, they would be no match for the modern Iraqi army.

The average cost per foot of drilling an oil well in Texas in 1957 was $13.50.

ern equipment of the Iraqi army but they could cause harassment from their mountain fastness.

The new regime hastened to publicize telegrams of support from Kurdish leaders during the first days after the coup d'etat.

THERE APPEARED to be no basis for reports that Kurds, "proloyalist" rebels, held out against the new regime in the mountains.

The few travelers I saw from the border insisted all was calm from the Kurdish border down as far as Kirkuk. I got the same report from travelers returning from the Iranian border.

Kirkuk was as quiet on the surface as Baghdad and all the villages we passed.

Hearing Set On Secondhand Dealers Reports

A special California Senate investigation committee has scheduled hearing on a proposed legislation requiring secondhand dealers to report to police and sheriffs agencies.

Sheriff Joe Rice said he was requested to notify all secondhand dealers and auctioneers in the area that the hearing was set for 10 a.m., Friday, at the assembly room of the State Building in Los Angeles.

The proposed law would require secondhand dealers to report all transactions involving identifiable secondhand tangible personal property, Rice said.

Purpose of the proposal, Rice explained, is to assist all law enforcement agencies in tracing and recovering stolen property which may have been disposed of through secondhand businesses.

The Big House

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The worm will turn. Even the patronizingly called "lower house" will rise up in its wrath and strike back.

This was the session of Congress at which the House of Representatives outdid the Senate in using its cerebral powers and earning its salary. On quite a few bills — I expressly have in mind Defense Department Reorganization, Reciprocal Trade Agreements and Supreme Court Curbing — the House cogitated while the Senate merely orated.

ANYBODY WHO wants to take a pile of Congressional Records to the hammock will soon find this out for himself. Most of the work that was thoughtful, penetrating, remedial, stimulative and activating was done on the House side — and this is unusual enough for special notice.

Even the House hearings were more informative (the Space scientists) and more sensational (Sherman Adams and Bernard Goldfine). I am not one who believes that Congress has done its duty when it fills the caucus chambers with spectators or passes a large number of laws.

AS A MATTER of protest, I stayed away from the Adams-Goldfine hearings, which seemed absurdly unimportant with the world half as. And it is my Jeffersonian opinion that the fewer laws the better.

But if anybody is looking for the best single bill passed on Capitol Hill, it would be a House measure — one called H. R. 3 by Rep. Howard W. (Judge) Smith (D. of Virginia). Its off-the-floor manager was Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand (R., Calif.). Its legislative rewrite man was Rep. De Witt Hyde (R., Md.). The bill is short and important enough to quote in full:

be construed as indicating an intent on the part of Congress to occupy the field in which such act operates, to the exclusion of all State laws on the same subject matter, unless such act contains an express provision to that effect, or unless there is direct and positive conflict between such act and the State law so that the two cannot be reconciled or consistently stand together."

The Smith bill is aimed at a doctrine which the Supreme Court attempted to lay down in the Stevie Nelson case. Nelson is a notorious Communist who was prosecuted and convicted under the Pennsylvania anti-sedition law. The Supreme Court ruled that the Federal Government "preempted" the anti-sedition field, so that State law was not Constitutional.

REP. SMITH is also author of the Federal law against sedition, the well-known Smith Act. A stalwart States' Rights man, Mr. Smith was indignant that a bill of his could be construed to invalidate a State Right.

There was a three-day debate, July 15-16-17, on H. R. 3, which any American would profit himself by reading. But before that there was a real parliamentary battle off the floor to bring this bill out of committee. Both the committee chairman, Emanuel Celler (D., N. Y.), and the ranking Republican, Kenneth Keating (N. Y.) opposed the bill.

IT TOOK SOME delicate scuffling to round up enough committee members to override these leaders. On the floor, the bill won with the votes of 138 Republicans and 103 Democrats. All this was done while the Senate was mulling and stumbling over a similar bill, by Senators Jenner and Butler, which thus far remains in committee.

H. R. 3, if I have read the signs right, is even more important for what it promises than what it actually delivers. It promises, as I am told by its sponsors, that we may be in for a restoration of the famous old conservative coalition between the Southern Democrats and Right Wing Republicans.

IT IS SHATTERING to contemplate what would have happened to the country if this combination of fundamentalists had not stood and fought all these years against the spendthrifts and try - anything extremists of the New Deal, the Fair Deal and now Modern Republicanism.

About this time last year, however, the grand alliance was split on the Administration's civil rights bill. Southern Democrats have taken to looking the other way when Old Guard Republicans need votes to hold down Federal spending. On H. R. 3, the sponsors moved, as somebody once wrote, "as if the floor were sanded with gunpowder."

EVERY CARE was taken to avoid even the suspicion that this was either a Southern or a Republican bill. One Virginian, Rep. Dick Poff of Radford, Va., agreed to forego a long speech, although he entered it in the Congressional Record. The GOP leader, former Speaker Joe Martin, purposely kept away from the microphone in the well of the House chamber, although his influence in the cloak room was paramount.

But the bipartisan passage of H. R. 3 performed invisible healing upon the wounds of the coalition — perhaps just in time to make a big difference here at the end of the session. There are a number of money-mad measures coming over from the Senate. The reunified coalition may be able to kill or modify the worst of them.

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: A friend of ours invited my husband and me to her home for dinner. My mother is visiting me from out of town and this friend knows my mother is visiting me, but she didn't include her in the invitation. I told this friend I couldn't accept because I didn't want to leave my mother. My husband thinks I am wrong and that we should have accepted the invitation. I'd appreciate your opinion.

MRS. N. L. K.
DEAR MRS. K.: Your husband is wrong. One never leaves a house guest behind. If your friend didn't have the good manners to include your mother, she has a lot to learn.

DEAR ABBY: I hope when you read this you won't think I am a silly schoolgirl. My problem is I am in love with a married man and he is in love with me. I am 22 and he is 26 and so is his wife. She won't give him a divorce and she is costing him $25 a week. She won't leave him alone although they live apart. She waits outside his rooming house to talk to him and follows him everywhere he goes trying to get him back. How can I get her to leave him alone?

IN LOVE WITH HIM
DEAR IN: Why don't YOU leave him alone? If this man is annoyed by his wife let HIM do something about it. In the meantime, until a man is divorced, he is married. A woman cannot be blamed for trying to save her marriage.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who has a 12-year-old daughter, who isn't even five feet tall and I'll bet this kid weighs over 200 pounds. My friend says a growing girl has to eat so she lets her eat half a cherry pie with a quart of milk at one sitting. I have seen this same child put away six pork chops with half a bottle of chili sauce, and six slices of bread. Maybe it's none of my business, but if you were me would you say anything? The child has a pretty face, but she is in such bad shape they can hardly find clothes to fit her.

SILENT FRIEND
DEAR SILENT: A real friend shouldn't remain silent any longer. No child needs food in these amounts to "grow." The mother should take this youngster to a doctor immediately. The "reason" for over-eating is an illness in itself, which can be cured.

DEAR ABBY: I am in my late thirties. There is a man about 50 who is interested in me. He says he loves me but he can't see me in public as he has to protect me from some woman he has been going around with for about 15 years. Should I go with other fellows or stick with him? Please advise me.

HIDING OUT:
DEAR HIDING: Protect YOUR or HIMSELF? He sounds like a pretty shady character. There's no future in seeing a man who can't take you out in public. Lose him.

DEAR ABBY: We'll be married forty years the 10th of October and here is my problem. My old man starts looking out our dining room window every evening at 3:30 p.m., and doesn't quit looking until 5:35. When I ask him what he's looking for he tells me he's enjoying the view. The only view we've got from that window is the view of the bus stop. Why do you think he does this? Do you think he could be looking to see one certain woman or do you think he is looking them all over in general? This has me worried.

WORRIED
DEAR WORRIED: There's no harm in looking, but if you are really worried, why don't you join him and enjoy the "view" together? After 40 years you should know from what you see if your husband is enjoying someone in particular or everyone in general.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SAMMY'S WIFE: Even more important than finding out "What Makes Sammy Run" is finding out how to make Sammy stop.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is charge accounts. My wife and two daughters seem to think that if they charge something they are getting it for nothing! When the bills come at the first of the month we have a big argument. They say they will not charge any more, but they forget their promises as soon as they get downtown again. Any suggestions you have will be appreciated.

IN HOCK
DEAR IN: Close the charge accounts and put the "girls" on an allowance.

DEAR ABBY: I want to ask you a question. If Santa Claus brings us the presents, and the Good Lord gives us our daily bread, and the stork brings the babies, what do we need men for?

LITTLE GIRL
DEAR LITTLE GIRL: When the present is the wrong size, the bread stale, and the babies don't turn out so well — we have to have somebody to blame.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookstore to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

'I Admit—It Needs Some Working On'

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

I've fit the good fight
With stones and bad words,
To save birds from the cats
And figs from the birds.

International Cat Week isn't due until November and Bird Week, I believe, is long past, so I guess I'm safe in paying my respects to both categories of wild life. I class cats in the wild life bracket.

ANYWAY, the gnarled old fig tree in the back yard is having itself a ball.

It has been more than prolific with the product coming to the luscious point progressively meaning a steady supply for relatives, friends and neighbors to say nothing about domestic consumption.

BUT EVER SINCE they started to ripen it has been a race between the a-entry (Mrs. G. and myself) and the b-entry (all of the birds in Long Beach).

It's worse now. A month ago all the birds sat up all night in the tree outside of my bedroom window and warbled and chirped. Too tired to eat figs the next day.

I tried to discourage them one night by heaving a glassful of ice water out of the window into the tree.

But the water bounced back and discouraged me.

NOW THE BIRDS are back at the figs. And that brought in the cats. They sit under the tree, tails twitching, until a bird gets gally from too much fig juice.

There's nothing more revolting than the sight of a cat gazing at you defiantly with birds' wings sticking out on either side of his slit eyes like a waxed moustache.

So it's the annual problem. I don't want the birds to eat the figs and I don't want the cats to eat the birds.

OUR WATER BILL is mounting. I find my aim is bad with the few stones available but it's superb with the garden hose.

Was shooting a spray at the tree to discourage the birds when a cat came long the fence and took aim. Caught the surprised cat on the backside and his legs were working so fast when he hit ground that he made a jet look like a snail.

The neighbor lady chided me but that cat didn't come back.

THE BLAST ruined the paper owl Mrs. G. had hung in the tree to scare the birds. Got it all soggy and now they are using it to talk their nests.

With the mating season ended for the birds, they are all happily paired off and aren't singing in the tree all night.

But I thought I heard crickets the other night.

TOLD THE MAN who comes to manicure the lawn about it and he said:
"Hell, them ain't crickets. Them's tree toads."
I told him I didn't give a hoot how many toads they had. Just so they didn't rub them together and make that noise.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Our father is on vacation. He said: "Vacation is just like any other time. Only everybody thinks all you have to do is drive people around like a blooming chauffeur and write, too."

We forgot to buy hair spray. He drove us down to the drugstore to get some. He is very grumpy. We hope vacation will end soon.

OUR FATHER said: "If you ever marry a column writer, be sure you get one who has a dog where there are plenty of guest columnists. Otherwise, he will be worn out ere the bloom is off his youth."

We do not intend to marry a column writer. We will marry a farmer. One who has horses we can ride.

OUR FATHER said he wishes he had a column on books. He said: "It is one of the best ways to get guest columnists. Because everybody has an idea he is a book critic. Also they will work for nothing plus a free book."

We said it is easy to write a column. Because there are lots of things to write about.

He looked at us in a queer way and said: "What have I done to deserve this viper in my bosom?"

He is wild! I mean, golly! We hope his vacation will end soon.

FOR OUR VACATION we went down in the Cachagua valley.

We rode a horse named Sugar. He is a keen horse.

We went to a dance the other night. Our Father had to drive us. He moaned and groaned and said he intended to resign and become a taxi driver. Only with a meter on the car and get paid for it.

Nobody can speak to him when he is on vacation.

He sits at the typewriter and tears paper out of it and throws it in the basket and makes the funniest noises.

EARL WILSON:

Roamin' 'Round America

Out in Hollywood there's a lot of talk about the comeback of Eddie Fisher. Producer Joe Pasternak told me he's trying to get MGM to sign him to a long-term contract. "I'm not talking about just his singing, but the way he delivers lines on TV and in night clubs," said Joe. "He can be another big acting star like Frank Sinatra." Joe's equally fond of Debbie Reynolds, whom he refers to as "an angel with spurs." Joe, famous for his malapropisms, recently told one actor, "Take this script home and maul it over."

Ted Husing is taping a series of radio interviews in L.A. and I went over to do one. Speaking of his brain operation which left him partly blind but without his famous eloquence, he said, "I've got more holes in my head than a golf course."

Actress Shirl Conway and composer Bernie Wayne — who married on "Bride and Groom" New Year's Eve — have separated. Wayne will get an Alabama quickie divorce, while Shirl ironically will be emceeing in Bucks County in "Love Story." Part of their trouble was the wedding itself, performed on TV. Neither gets custody of the prizes as there really weren't many.

Toots Shor's serious about his "feud" with Jackie Gleason; says he'll agree to play golf with him "providing we can play on separate courses so I don't have to breathe the same air." . . . Jack Tirmann never expected to see the day that Ike and Khrushchev would be pen pals.

One of my pictures (of glamour doll Nona Van Tosh, taken with my trusty Nikon) just appeared in U.S. Camera. I felt real good about it when I met the head of the Las Vegas News Bureau. "Congratulations — you're improving," he said. "You no longer cut off heads. Now you cut off feet."

Have some more funny road

ed this one in Long Beach: "We buy junk and sell antiques." Oscar Jay, of Minneapolis, who's also collecting them, noticed, outside Yuma, Colo., "the Supreme Court Motel." Road signs shaped like suitcases read: "Rest Your Case at the Supreme Court." He also spotted these: "Cattle Crossing Means Go Slow; that Old Bull Is Some Cow's Beau." And, in the Black Hills: "How to live to be 100: Get to be 99; Then Be Very Careful. (Got any more?)" Burger sign outside L.A., advertises "Smorgasburgers."

What do school teachers do in summer? English instructor Louis Ginsberg of Paterson, N.J., says he builds up his low blood-pleasure, corrects the hardening of his platitudes, raises his fallen arches, and reads his students' papers and draws his own conclusions. To forget the whole mess, he takes milk of amnesia. He says a finagling husband is one who likes to have his cake and Edith, too.

A lady I know contracted two new diseases while visiting Reno: Slot-machine hands and vodka elbow. . . . A political candidate in Kansas, according to Ima Washout, boasted that he was born in a log cabin like his opponent. "But my family moved into one," he announced, "as soon as they could afford it."

EARL'S PEARLS:
"Magicians should stop sawing women in half," says Jack Herbert of Chicago. "There are too many women now."

WISH I'D SAID THAT:
"In order to become somebody as a singer you've got to have some body to start with." — Eddie Hanley says an outer space guy with helmet and metal horns landed here, went to 42d St. penny arcade, looked around, approached a gun machine with two lights lit up and tiara of lights across the top, and said, "What's a beautiful girl like you doing in a place like this?" . . .

That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY: No Vulgarly

HOLLYWOOD — Sidney Poitier, hot on the heels of Rouben Mamoulian's firing from "Porgy and Bess," is refusing to play the Porgy role until producer Sam Goldwyn and the new director, Otto Preminger, remove the "vulgarity" of the dice-shooting scene. Poitier is leaving for New York this week and will sit it out there until its wishes are met.

A&P heir Huntington Hartford got himself an acting part in "John Paul Jones." Hartford, himself a producer, is doing it just for kicks.

MGM OWES ONE picture to Julie London, who co-starred with Bob Taylor in that studio's "Saddle the Wind." Her salary for the second will be $35,000, an increase of $10,000 over the first — so they've offered her a small-but-solid role in "Some Came Running" with Frank Sinatra and Shirley MacLaine.

But here's the catch: Julie's contract calls for co-star billing with the male star and Shirley already has that! It looks like a stalemate. . . . Lili St. Cyr loaned Carol Channing a G-string for Carol's striptease routine at the Tropicana in Las Vegas.

JOHN GAVIN's starring assignment in Universal's remake of "Imitation of Life" is quite a switch on the original in which Warren William played an ichthyologist. John will play a magazine photographer — from fishbowl to flashbulb!

Sammy Davis, Jr., walked into the Crescendo, stuck a $100 bill in poker-player Jack Costanzo's pocket, grabbed Jack's bongo drums, and ran out of the joint just as his estranged wife, Loray White, walked in on the arm of another beau.

FRANCES FAYE, also at the Crescendo, told me she awoke in a cold sweat in the middle-of-the-night before wondering if the search is still on for Bridey Murphy!

If we MUST have "message movies," let them all be like Stanley Kramer's brilliant new picture, "The Defiant Ones," in which Kramer & Co. reach ecstasies of high-flown dramatics, wild arias of hell-for-leather action, and arpeggios of thunderous suspense such as you've seldom seen on the screen!

THIS PICTURE pummels and benumbs the senses, yet never forgets for one single frame of its profound, 98-minute plea for racial equality that a movie audience must never be treated as a blind herd — and that Hollywood's salvation lies in treating every audience as a man who has the wit to understand words and actions without being hit over the head with them.

Tony Curtis and Sidney Poitier are the co-stars, and two better actors you won't find anywhere, from Teaneck, N. J., to Topanga, Calif.: Circle this one on your must-see calendar.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Warner Bros.-TV, the outfit whose Cheyenne series, is still being snubbed by Clint Walker, gave Jim Garner a $15,000 bonus for bicycling between his Maverick series and the starring role in a new movie, "Up Periscope."

Studio also bonused Frank Gifford with a leave of absence, till Dec. 15, to resume as left halfback with the New York Giants. . . . Tom Duggan's wife, Ann Duncan, dragged down a dry-docked part in "Up Periscope" — as a hula doll in a waterfront saloon.

I POINTED OUT that onetime Warner cowpoke, Dick Faron, to the lot's new Cheyenne buckaroo Ty Hardin, while we were lunching in the studio commissary. Ty, a newcomer to show business, didn't even know who the old-timer was!

Warner producer Howie Horowitz told me, "We've got five TV Westerns rolling here on the lot but my 77 Sunset series isn't one of them, despite the title — it's supposed to be the Sunset Boulevard address of a Hollywood talent agency."

HELEN GRACO will be back with her husband on The Spike Jones Show Aug. 16. She missed only two shows while having her baby. . . . Oh! Susanna has been dropped as the title of that series. Henceforth the Gale Storm show will be CALLED The Gale Storm Show! . . . But without that exclamation point.

Marcia Henderson gets killed for the first time in her TV & movie career in the "Two Graves for Swan Valley" segment of Ziv's new Bat Master-son series.

MARVIN GOUX, USC football coach (he's in charge of the school's linemen) tackles an acting chore, his first, in Milton Caniff's new Steve Canyon series. Goux was a go-man-GO! candidate for all-American in 1932. . . . Chuck Connors, star of ABC's new Rifleman series, lays claim to being the only real Brooklyn cowboy on the screen. Chuck was born and raised in Flatbush.

Harold "Scrappy" Lambert, creator of the Father Knows Best series, quit show business to sell real estate in Beverly Hills. "I like it better," Scrappy tells me — "because the possibilities of making a buck are much more substantial."

PATRICE WYMORE is heading out for London for some BBC-TVentures. She'll cross paths with her husband, Errol Flynn, whom she hasn't seen for a year. Will they meet? "I hope so," says Pat — but worky.

A local TV interviewer asked Jerry Lee Lewis, the 22-year-old rocknoller who made a 13-year-old his third wife, if his three-year-old son by his second wife is contemplating marriage. "No," snapped Jerry Lee, "but he likes girls!"

20 Press Club Members to Attend Luau

More than 20 members of the Desert Press Club at Palm Springs and their guests will attend a big luau next Saturday night at Newport Dunes near the City of Newport.

The event, hosted by the Greater Los Angeles Press Club, will have attendance from Palm Springs, San Francisco, Hawaii, Alaska, and the Twin Counties Press Club at Riverside.

Los Angeles publicist Bill Best, co-chairman of the event, reported from Los Angeles this week that more than 2,500 reservations have been received from newsmen and their wives for the outing. "It will be one of the largest parties of newsmen in the history of journalism," said Best.

Newport Dunes is a newly developed park near the beach city and encompasses some six acres of sand. The park makes a circle around a lagoon and in the center of the lagoon is an old sailing ship.

Those members from Palm Springs who have reservations to attend are Fred Wiegand, Don Klotzbuecher, George Ringwald, Hildy Crawford, Al Le Ance, Joe King, Rita Darwin, Bill Anderson, Alyce Mills, Eileen Irish, Robert Nims, August G. Kettmann, Ray Corliss, Ginny Blackman, Cliff Miller, Wanda Kennedy, Art Letherby, Kenneth Brott, Art Sipherd and John Michel.

Charles Chaplins Honeymoon With Friends

Following a quiet chapel wedding service at Winterhaven, Charles Chaplin, Jr., and his bride, actress Susan Magness, are honeymooning with friends in Palm Springs.

Chaplin, 33-year-old son of famed comedian Charlie Chaplin and Lita Grey Chaplin, originally met his 22-year-old bride a year ago, while she was a student at the Pasadena Playhouse.

He was then appearing with Edward Everett Horton in "All for Mary."

The couple announced they would return to Hollywood after their short Palm Springs honeymoon.

Salingers Plan Rest in Italy Before 'Touring'

Halting in Paris long enough to send off a post card, Villagers Sam and Dorothy Salinger reported they're on their way to Terracina, Italy, where they'll "rest up at the seashore before taking any more tours."

Before their Paris stop, the Continental tourists visited Stockholm, Kipula . . . "land of the midnight sun" . . . and Copenhagen.

The Salingers plan to return here by the end of September.

Paris Fashion Designers Make Dame Look Like Dame

By GAY PAULEY
United Press International
PARIS — (UP) — Paris fashion designers this year have made a dame look like what she is, a dame.

That's what it all boils down to, when you review the highlights of the fall and winter collections from the designers who finished their Paris showing this week.

They replaced the sack with curves, left legs on display and brought back the waistline, although most of them raised it from its normal anatomical location.

Two designers pulled a couple of big surprises. The House of Dior dropped hemlines 14 to 15 inches from the floor, well below what most other designers showed.

And Balenciaga, rated by a lot of fashion critics as one of Paris' "greats," clung to the chemise-style silhouette. That is what the buyers reported after this show; reporters won't get a peek until later this month.

Most of the accent on curves is at the bust and neckline. Not to be overlooked in all the hemline-waistline talk, is the news in fabrics. For daytime their bulk is outstanding — tweeds which look an inch thick; lacy, airy mohairs; textured woolsens of all kinds. Most patterns are small and subtle; I could count on one hand the big splashy plaids in the collections.

Fabrics for evening are so extravagant it would take a sultan to afford some of the dresses. They include heavy silk crepes, satins, brocades, cut velvets, printed failles, and chiffon. Not satisfied with the lushness of fabric itself, designers encrust them all over with many colored gems.

Dior stressed black as the most important color for the new season, and it was a heavy theme with other designers. But, without there was a generous sprinkling of all the reds and blues, the mauve and purple tones, many blues and some greens and browns.

ESTEE LAUDER, renowned beauty authority, whose newest body oil, Estoderme Youth-Dew Bath Oil, will be previewed at J. W. Robinson's Palm Springs store the last part of September.

Beauty Authority to Be At Robinson's Next Month

"You can be lovely to look at as long as you live," promises Estee Lauder, renowned beauty authority whose complete line of beauty preparations is designed to aid the American woman fulfill this promise.

Long famous for her concern with the American complexion, Miss Lauder now turns her attention to complete hand-to-foot skin beauty and has created a new series of beauty-bath preparations.

She has long felt that such areas as the hands, elbows, arms, legs and feet, are too often neglected and allowed to become prematurely old-looking. So her first aid to the body is the amazing Estoderme Youth Dew Bath Oil, a product that for the first time combines secret emollient ingredients never before presented in a product of this kind to help keep the body young, supple and smooth.

Estoderme Youth-Dew Bath Oil is far from being merely a fragrant accessory—in it are incorporated some of the ultra-modern science ingredients that have made the Estoderme Youth-Dew products famous—especially the egg constituent that has the youth-restoring action of a hormone without being one.

Topnote of the bath oil is a delicious, delicate clinging fragrance, an essence Miss Lauder found in France. A few drops of this precious oil in the daily bath is enough to soften and perfume the water which in turn will soften and smooth the skin.

Miss Lauder's personal representative, Miss Ada Hanley, will be available for personal consultation at J. W. Robinson's Palm Springs store Sept. 26 and 27. During this time a quarter-ounce sample of the Estoderme Youth-Dew Bath Oil will be presented to patrons with any purchase in the Estee Lauder line.

Melted butter spread over the tops and sides of cakes before icing them will keep the cake moist and the icing smoother.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

NEW YORK — B — Ernie Banks, whose baseball career was threatened by a mysterious arm ailment little more than a year ago, is swinging the most explosive bat in the majors today.

As the key man in the Chicago Cubs' spectacular rise from cellar to first division, his 1958 achievements are bidding to make him:

—THE FIRST SHORSTOP in history to lead the National League in home runs.

—The National League's most valuable player.

—Runs - batted - in champion of the N. L. circuit.

The slim, 27-year-old native of Dallas, Tex., got four hits Tuesday, including his 31st home run and the 10th inning single that gave the Cubs a 10-1 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

COACH ROGER Hornsby must have got a real bang out of Ernie's performance; for it was the Rajah - generally rated the greatest of all right-handed batters - who gave right-handed Ernie many useful pointers and much encouragement this spring.

Tuesday's performance emphasized how Banks is fueling the upward surge of a Chicago club that hasn't finished in the first division since 1946.

AS / SHORSTOP Ernie considered a better-than-average fielder; but as a 1958 shortstop his figures could make a Ted Williams or a Mickey Mantel proud. He's batting .310 and leads the league with 31 homers and with 90 runs-batted-in.

Banks, who left Dallas' soft-ball lots six years ago to take his chances in big league baseball, could hardly throw from shortstop to first base in the spring of 1957 because of a mysterious ailment in his right arm. It appeared his career might be finished, after four good seasons.

BUT ERNIE KEPT plugging away gamely and the ailment disappeared. He finished the '57 season with 43 homers, 102 runs batted-in and a .285 average.

"They yak about Willie Mays all the time," growled the Rajah. "But I think this guy Banks is a better hitter than Willie and that he'll prove it this year."

Ernie is backing Hornsby's sum-up by belting for laurels. He's trying to do in the National League what only Vern Stephens did in the American circuit, where he was the only shortstop ever to lead in home runs.

In the runs-batted-in department, no shortstop has led the National League since Honus Wagner back in 1907-1908-1909.

Vone Charges Fighter's Defeat Was 'Bagged'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Tony Vone, co-manager of conquered heavyweight Wayne Bethea, charged today his fighter's defeat by Sonny Liston Wednesday night was "bagged."

"The referee never should have stopped the fight," Vone said. "Sure, he was bleeding, but it was from the gums and not from cuts, and he wasn't hurt."

Vone charged after referee Bernie Weissman in the ring after he halted the bout at 1:09 of the first round yelling it was "in the bag. I can see it in your face. I can see it in your eyes."

Betha, knocked down for the first time in his 28 pro fights, said he never was groggy or hurt, and "he never should have stopped the fight."

Mexican Colony vs. DHS. (At Desert Hot Springs.)
M&M-Lehrfeld vs. PD Jr. Chamber. (At Polo Grounds.)

Neal Green pitched a no-hit game while his teammates were lashing out for eleven runs as the Palm Springs Builders Supply 11-0 and tied the Mexican Colony for the lead in the Desert Softball League, in a game played last night before a small crowd at the Polo Grounds.

The win left the Biltmore and the Colony, who had taken the league lead just the night before, tied with identical 10 and three records. M&M-Lehrfeld is in third place.

ALTHOUGH GREEN struck out 19 batters in the seven inning game his performance wasn't perfect. Four men reached base on walks and one on an error. The Builders loaded the bases, in fact, in the fourth inning.

It was the second no-hit performance for Green this year and was doubly impressive coming as it did the night after he had gone nine innings against Desert Hot Springs only to lose 1-0.

BUILDERS PITCHER Sal Valdivia stopped the winners for the first two innings, but led by O. B. Crawford's home run the Biltmore jumped on him for three runs in the third.

They added two more in the fifth and then blew the game wide open in the sixth with six runs on three hits and four Builders Supply errors. Earl Davidson, who had relieved Valdivia, finally put out the fire after ten batters had stepped to the bat.

GREEN ALSO AIDED his own cause at bat, getting two singles for three times at the plate.

Both the Biltmore and the Mexican Colony have two games remaining to be played before the end of the regular season Aug. 13.

Yogi Berra Hit

On Face With Ball

BALTIMORE — (UPI) — Well, it happened—Yogi Berra was hit on the face while trying to catch a ball in the outfield.

During pre-game practice Wednesday night, while Berra was shagging balls in the outfield, a fly ball struck his glove and hit his left eyebrow causing a wide gash.

Three stitches were necessary to close the wound.

Attendance Battle

Dodgers May Not Win Pennant, But Are Cinch to Eat Bratwurst

By BARNEY SEIBERT

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (UPI) — All the last place Los Angeles Dodgers may get out of this year's National League pennant race is a bratwurst — and of course attendance money.

COCKTAIL HOUR
At the Chi Chi

When Walter O'Malley moved his Bums from the tradition seeped Flatbush precinct to the spacious Los Angeles Coliseum, there were those who forecast that Southern California crowds would eclipse the Milwaukee Braves record of 2,215,404 set last season.

MILWAUKEE OWNER Lou Perini scoffed at such talk.

"I'll bet a bratwurst we out draw the Dodgers," he said.

With the season two thirds over, it looks like Perini will be masticating his remark while O'Malley dines on the crinkly, brown, oversize frankfurter which the sausage makers say made Milwaukee famous long before the advent of beer barons.

EVEN BILL EBERLY, who runs Perini's box office, admits the Braves won't achieve their 1957 attendance this year. "We'd have to average 39,000 a date for the rest of the season and that's impossible."

In fact, the Braves will be hard-pressed to even reach two million, a mark which they have surpassed each of the past four years.

As of Wednesday, the Braves home attendance was 1,376,868. The Dodgers had drawn but 1,334,320.

HOWEVER, THE Braves have

Bout Postponed

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — (UPI) — A sponsor withdrawal has caused promoters to postpone indefinitely Saturday's scheduled featherweight 10-rounder between Collier Cox of Los Angeles and Felix Cervantes of Mexico.

played to 51 home dates while Los Angeles has made but 47 home appearances. Milwaukee was averaging 27,026 each time the box office opened at County Stadium. The Dodgers average was 28,389 per home date—1,363 more than the Braves.

Furthermore, O'Malley had the law of averages on his side in the run for the bratwurst. He has 23 home dates left, four with the Braves. Perini has 20 home dates remaining.

PROJECTING THE Los Angeles attendance through the rest of the season, you get a year's total of 1,986,267.

Do the same for the Braves and it adds up to 1,918,869. Even the schedule spells bratwurst for the Dodgers. Los Angeles has 12 dates remaining with first division clubs, including three with the neighboring Giants. Milwaukee has seven dates with first division teams.

EBERLY SAYS the recession and the weather are the major reasons Milwaukee attendance is running about 100,000 less than a year ago.

"For us to draw two million the same people have to come out many times. When the recreation dollar is down, those people come out less often," he said.

SOMETHING NEW has been added to the infield at the Milwaukee County stadium, home of the Braves. It is a mechanical-driven tarpaulin, which is a 175 ft. roller driven by a motor scooter at each end. The infield can be covered with this in 45 seconds compared to a minute and a half time needed with a crew of 30 men to spread the old-type tarp. The tarp is housed in a ditch which extends from a point near home plate parallel to the base line. The ditch is covered with plywood and rubber. (UPI Telephoto).

Pro Boxing Given Approval By City Council

Palm Springs City Council this week put its stamp of approval on the holding of professional boxing at the Polo Grounds in this city.

Although the council gave its approval for the holding of the matches here, the action was subject to conditions set by them in presenting an elaborate fighting program.

COUNCILMAN GEORGE Beebe said that he did not want to see "the local presentation of fights get honky-tonk, but to be kept on a high level."

"I have heard that the promoters of the fights are figuring the margin of gain very close, and I would hate to see it below the standard of high class entertainment," added Beebe.

THE PROMOTERS plan to charge $4 for ringside seats, $2.75 for arena seats, and $1.50 general admission, and expect an average patronage of 1,500 persons.

Promoter of the bouts will be Dean R. Leach, local resident who lives at 2729 Claymore Drive, and who will be backed in the venture by Cal Pierce, brother of bandleader Al Pierce.

Venturi Favored In Miller Open

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (UPI) — Slim Ken Venturi's putter is back on target again to make him the favorite for an unprecedented second straight title in the $35,000 Miller Open golf tournament starting today at Tripoli Country Club.

The slightly built San Franciscan said the tourney was "wide open," but fellow pros considered him the man to beat in the 72-hole medal tournament which ends Sunday.

Look Ma, No Race! Braves Open Up Six-Game Margin

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Look ma, no race!

Not only in the American League, but in the National as well.

It's all the fault of Milwaukee's business-like Braves, who have opened up a six-game lead and just about put an end to all that propaganda about a close race in the National League.

ROOKIE PITCHER Carlton Willey and Hank Aaron helped widen the gap Wednesday night when they combined in a 2-1 victory over the Pirates.

Willey pitched a three-hitter for his sixth victory while Aaron belted his 25th home run with one on off Vern Law in the first inning. Aaron's blow ended the scoring for the night after Bill Virdon had homered for Pittsburgh in the top of the first.

THE CARDINALS handed the second-place Giants their eighth loss in the last nine games, 8-7; Philadelphia topped Cincinnati, 8-5, and Los Angeles defeated Chicago.

In the American League the Yankees maintained their 16-game spread over the rest of the field with a 3-1 win over the Orioles; the White Sox beat the Athletics, 4-2; the Red Sox stopped the Senators, 8-2, and rain washed out the Detroit-Cleveland contest.

Glenn Davis Emerges Top Star of U.S. Track Team

BUDAPEST, Hungary — (UPI) — Glenn Davis' unbroken string of victories capped by a new 400-meter hurdles world record established him today as the top star of the United States track team's tour of Europe.

Davis has won all six individual events he entered in meets at Moscow, Warsaw and here, plus other victories in relay races.

IN ADDITION, he's expected to score another "double" in the United States vs. Greece meet at Athens on Saturday and Sunday. The U. S. squad was scheduled to leave by plane today for that city, winding up its brilliant tour in the country that gave birth to the Olympic Games.

Davis zoomed to a new world mark of 49.2 seconds for the 400-meter hurdles Wednesday. That clipped three-tenths of a second off the record of 49.5 seconds that Davis established during the tryouts for the 1956 Olympic Games.

IT ALSO LED the United States men's team to an unofficial 127-68 victory over the Hungarian men's team in the two-day competition at Nep-Stadium. No official count of points was made.

In addition, the U.S. women's team, which had been outscored both by the Russians in Moscow and the Poles in Warsaw, outpointed the Hungarian girls, 64-54.

Elliott Plans Half-Mile Race Tonight

'Miracle Mile' Set of 3.54.5 Mark by Aussie

DUBLIN, Ireland (UPI) — With out any time off to celebrate his astounding new mile record of 3:54.5, Australian running machine Herb Elliott heads right back to the track tonight for another race, this time at either a half-mile or two miles.

Elliott's statement to meet officials that he's ready for another top-flight race flabbergasted them almost as much as his "miracle mile" Wednesday night amazed a crowd that came to root for Ron Delany and stayed to cheer Elliott to the echo.

CHANCES WERE good that Elliott would hook up in another duel with Delany tonight, especially if the Aussie elected to run the half-mile.

Elliott's triumph goes into the books as the most amazing mile race in history since five runners all broke the four - minute barrier. Four of them were under the accepted mile mark of 3:58.0 held by Australian John Landy. Elliott said today the record was due to "perfect conditions."

HE LISTED: 1. The track, which was firm and springy after a light rain. 2. The pace — "just terrific." 3. The competition. 4. "The wonderful enthusiasm of the Irish crowd for their terrific applause on my last lap."

Officials of the Clonliffe Harriers and Crusaders Meet confirmed there was no reason why Elliott's performance would be denied recognition as a new world mark by the International Amateur Athletic Federation. There was no following wind or any other questionable factor, such as pacing, involved.

AUSSIE MERV Lincoln was second in 3:55.9, trailing Elliott by about 15 yards, and Delany was third in 3:57.5, barely nipping Murray Halberg of New Zealand who was clocked in the same time. Aussie Albert Thomas suffered the strange fate of running a 3:58.6 mile and finishing 4-4-4.

Elliott's fractional times were: 58 seconds for the first quarter; 1:58.0 for the half; 2:55.0 for the three-quarters. He ran the last quarter in 55.5 seconds.

Moore-King Bouts Follow Tradition

By HAL WOOD

United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Some people complain that Archie Moore, the world's light-heavyweight champion, is making a "career" out of fighting Howard King of Reno, Nev.

Shucks, Moore is only a baby when it comes to fighting the same guy often. In fact, he has battled the Nevada lad only five times.

DOWN THROUGH the years, champions have had particular "patsies" they could depend upon to put up a good fight, the customers a show — and still not get hurt.

Jack Johnson, for instance, fought Joe Jeannette nine times before he (Johnson) won the world's heavyweight title in 1908. Never after that however, except for a three - round exhibition in New York in 1945 — when Johnson was 67 and Jeannette 68.

THIS JEANNETTE, who died recently, had a flock of "series" going with the top battlers of his day. He went into the ring with the great Sam Langford 10 times. One year, in 1906, Jeannette had six bouts—all except one with Langford or Johnson.

Of course, in those days, there was the "color line" drawn by many white heavyweights and very often the Negro battlers had to campaign among themselves.

POSSIBLY THE greatest "series" in boxing was between the late Harry Greb and the then soon-to-be world heavy weight champion Gene Tunney. They tangled four times in four years, with the light-heavyweight crown at stake twice. Each man won once, and the other two bouts were 10-round no-decisions.

Greb also battled Tommy

Wins Sixth Straight

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. — (UPI) — C. T. Chenery's First Landing maintained an undefeated record Wednesday by scoring a seven-length triumph over Pilot in the winner-take-all $14,100 Saratoga Special at Saratoga. The two-year-old colt has won six straight.

ALWAYS FUN AT
Bali - Bali

Loughran six times; and Loughran tangled with Steve Hamas four times, Mike McTigue four times and Young Stribling three times.

THEN THERE WAS the case of Siapsie Maxie Rosenbloom, who used to fight about 25 times per year. Once he tangled with Lee Ramage three times within six weeks—all in Los Angeles. For his trouble he got one draw and two likings. He was champion at the time — but these were 10 - round non-title bouts.

Of course, Moore has had these series going on before. He met Harold Johnson five times, winning four of them. He whipped Joey Maxim three times—once to win the light - heavyweight title and twice more to retain it.

Archie sees nothing wrong in meeting the same man over and over again.

"A young fellow like Howard King keeps improving all the time," says Archie, who is his own best press agent. "Who knows some day he may lick me."

WATER... PLENTY OF IT FOR PALM SPRINGS

Even though blessed with great genius the most venturesome scientist would hesitate before wasting his time trying to develop a process for manufacturing water.

Water is strictly nature's gift to humanity. And here on the desert, particularly, the importance of having good water available in plentiful supply every hour on every day can never be overestimated.

Thanks to Southern California's two highest mountain peaks towering over Palm Springs, which usually hold their snowy crests into July . . . and thanks too, to the founders of your Palm Springs Water Company, who spent wisely and well to conserve and develop the water resources of this community, there never has been a water shortage in Palm Springs.

Your Water Company is ever vigilant regarding its responsibility, and is constantly adding to and improving existing methods to insure continuation of the finest water service possible.

Cathedral City

By JEAN PATANE

Mrs. Eva Kelley (Desert Cafe) with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Price, and their daughter, Vivien, left last Friday to spend the month of August at Ocean Beach, San Diego. Price is on vacation from his duties at Kings Service Station. About Sept. 15 Mrs. Kelley will reopen the Desert Cafe for the 14th season.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kizer (the assistant manager of Cathedral City Branch of Security Bank) and their baby son, Randy, are enjoying a three week vacation visiting friends and relatives in Los Angeles, and before returning to the desert they plan on spending a week at Crestline in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Representing the Cathedral City Community Church, Mrs. Robert McKenzie is attending the Leadership Training Conference at the Presbyterian Conference Grounds at Pacific Palisades.

Dr. and Mrs. Adrian Keller returned Saturday night from San Luis Obispo, where they visited for a month at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carter and children, Patricia, Michael, Kathleen and Christine. Enroute home they stopped in Westwood, their former home, to visit with friends.

Following a three week vacation in Los Angeles visiting with their many friends, Mrs. Louise Roy is back at her home on "C" Street. On Tuesday, her sister, Margaret Mills, with whom she shares her home, was here for four days from Herkey Creek where she is spending the summer, and she plans on returning after Labor Day.

Weekend houseguests at the Idyllwild ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mesick (A-1 TV) were Mrs. Beth Whipple of Los Angeles, Worthy Grand Matron State of California OES, and Mrs. Nova Gray of Twenty-nine Palms, also Fred Hepner, Robert Long, Bob Robinson and Constance Holland, desert ceramic artist.

Mrs. James Arnold and children, Patricia Ann and Loren, are en route to Rifle, Colo., where they will spend two or three weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hays Wilson, while Rev. Arnold is attending a church conference in Monmouth, Ill.

Florence Taylor, owner of Florence's Beauty Corral, Barbara Carlton, and Irene Phelps, who owns the Sun Tiki Restaurant in Desert Hot Springs, left Wednesday on a motor trip to Mexico. They plan on spending the next month visiting Alcapulco, Guadalajara and the many interesting out of the way places south of the border. Olive Ritter will be in charge of the beauty shop while Florence is on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Costa, who drove to their former home in Taunton, Mass., returned with their children, three-year-old Anthony and four-year-old Christopher; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Costa, his sister, Elaine, and brother, Edward, who will make their home in Palm Valley. Tony will be general sales manager of the Stardust Oasis homes now under construction.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crockett, who with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Henderson, are the new owners of "C and H" Market (formerly Whitney's Market) is Mrs. Crockett's mother, Mrs. Goldie Perales of Los Angeles.

While in Bellflower over the weekend Mrs. Arvella Allred celebrated her birthday Aug. 4 at the home of her father, J. C. Wood, who is 86, and other members of her family. Mrs. Allred is on the nursing staff at Desert Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Larkin and daughters, Mavis and Shirley, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown of Santa Ana were guests last Sunday at the home of Irene Van Dusen in San Bernardino.

Mrs. Bill (Ruth) Sanders and daughter, Patsy, left today for Lake Tahoe to join Bill, who is there for the summer. Before returning to the desert Mrs. Sanders and Patsy will visit with relatives in Northern California and with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis spent a few days at Idyllwild as houseguests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buccino of Rancho Mirage, who have taken a cottage at Idyllwild for the month of August.

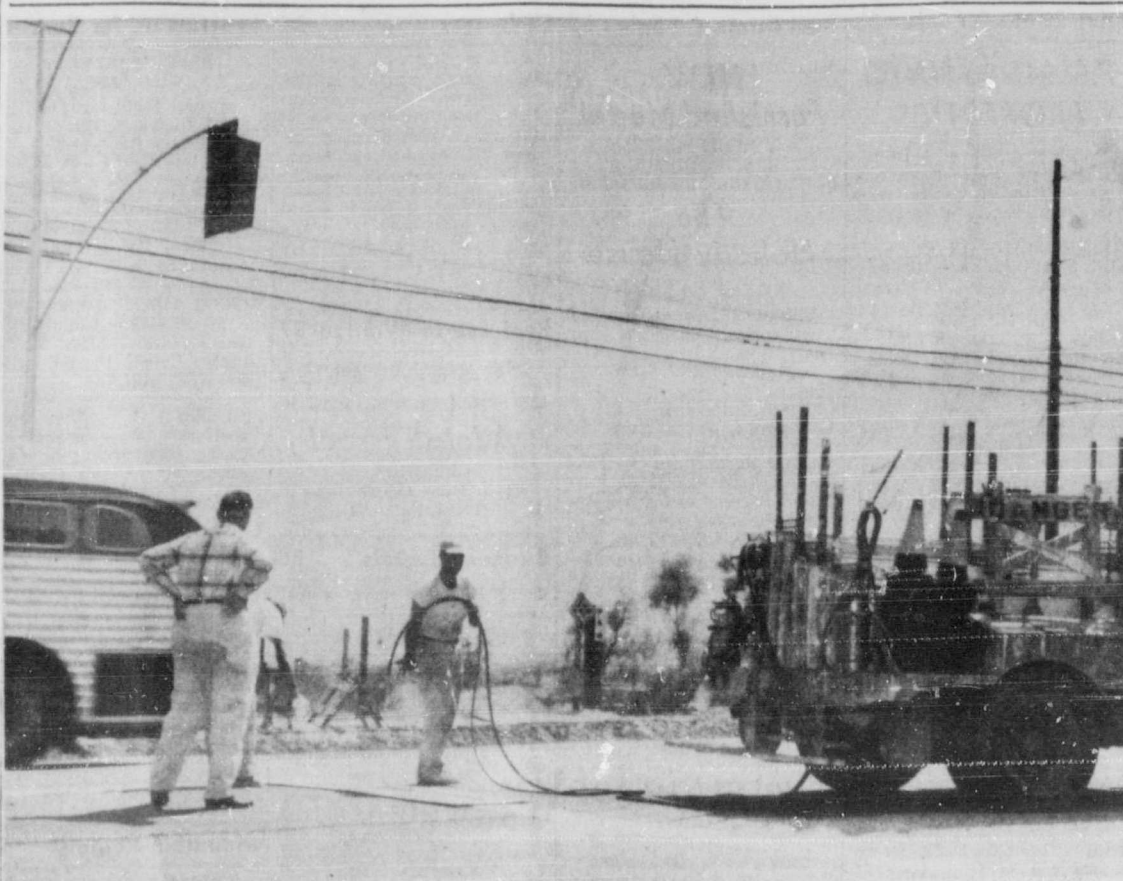

Following an extended vacation in Washington and visiting friends and relatives in Seattle, Doris Krause spent a week at Idyllwild before returning to her home. Mrs. Krause is with Scott's Desert Wear.

No. 14 Proves Very Unlucky

HACKENSACK, N. J. — (UPI) — Sam Iannelli, 39, never wants to hear the number "14" again. Iannelli, who has a record for passing bad checks in New Jersey for the past 14 years, was sentenced to 14 years in prison, to run consecutively for passing 14 bad checks in the area.

College Graduate Has Confidence

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — A motorist stopped by a patrolman and asked if he was willing to take a drunkometer test replied with confidence, "Yes, I'm a college graduate."

STATE HIGHWAY painters finish final touches on the striping of the highway at the corner of Sunrise Way and Highway 111, marking the "stop" boundaries of the new stop signals. The state is completing the testing of the signals, and they should be turned on for traffic control within the next day or so. (Sun Photo).

A FIRST SOLO FLIGHT was made by Naval Aviation Cadet Ray T. Sullivan, Jr. of a claim which included a hotel bill for $37.03 of which $56 was for a room for four days at $14 per day, drew fire this week from Supervisor Fred McCall who charged that $14 per day for a hotel room is "out of line."

Farmers Fair Entry Deadline Set for Aug. 10

Last call for exhibitors at the Farmers Fair of Riverside County, being held Aug. 20-24 at the Hemet Fairgrounds was made today by Bud Nelson, fair manager.

Closing date for entries is less than a week away, and must be filed at the Fair office not later than Aug. 10, Nelson said. The administration office of the Farmers Fair will be open Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 9 and 10, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. for the convenience of exhibitors wishing to make entries and obtain entry blanks. Premium books are still available by calling or writing to the Fair office at Hemet, but to be able to compete for the $30,000 premium list, entries must be in by the above date.

Council Approves Change Order for Police Station

City Council this week approved a change order amounting to an increase of $7,761.93 on the new Palm Springs Police Station for terrazzo flooring in most of the offices and hallways, colored cement in the security section and vinyl flooring in the assembly hall and gym. The change order increases the cost of the building from $301,338 to $309,099.93. The council denied any change in adding coloring to outside walls "to cut the glare on the white cement." Council action was an attempt to cut the cost of maintenance of vinyl asbestos flooring in the building.

Bill From County Counsel for Hotel Room At Convention Is Criticized by Supervisors

Presentation to the Board of Supervisors by County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., of a claim which included a hotel bill for $37.03 of which $56 was for a room for four days at $14 per day, drew fire this week from Supervisor Fred McCall who charged that $14 per day for a hotel room is "out of line."

"I can't conscientiously sit here and approve such an expenditure," declared McCall.

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones was quick to join McCall in opposition to payment of the claim. Sullivan pointed out that he had attended the convention in Palo Alto with board approval, that the hotel at which he stayed, Rickey's Studio Inn Hotel, was that in which the convention was held, and that the rate was the hotel's regular rate. He said the county has set no limitation on the per day hotel charge at conventions, and he had incurred no infraction of county rules.

SULLIVAN'S CLAIM was accompanied by an itemized receipt from the hotel showing the charge of $56 plus $1.03 for a phone call and payment of the entire bill by Sullivan.

Administrative Officer Robert T. Anderson said Sullivan had submitted the claim in good faith and in compliance with the county's regulations on travel expenses.

"IF WE OBJECT to a $14 per day charge then we should change our policy," said Supervisor George Berkey, "so there could be no question. In this case Sullivan has complied with our present policy and conformed to our rules and regulations."

Berkey and Supervisor Paul Anderson voted against a motion by Jones and McCall that the claim be returned to Sullivan with a demand that he re-submit it, and Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain passed his vote, so the motion was lost.

Supervisor Berkey made a motion that all the county claims, including that of Sullivan, be approved, but there was no second, so this motion also was lost.

5 Kittens, 6 Dogs Now Available For Adoption

Five kittens and six dogs, ranging in size from a tiny pup to a husky Belgian shepherd, are now available for adoption at the Palm Springs Animal Shelter.

Canines ready to join Village families include a pint-sized golden cocker-type male pup, a male wire-haired terrier, a female black cocker mixture, a male shepherd, which is described by humane officers as being "as good as gold," a male collie-type and a Belgian shepherd spayed female.

For feline fans, five small gray and white kittens, whose short tails indicate some Manx ancestry, are also eligible for adoption.

All these animals may be seen at the East Ramon Road shelter kennels, open daily from 8 to 9 a.m. and from 3 to 5 p.m.

The American Memorial Library, with more than 100,000 volumes and 2,300 visitors a day, is the largest public library in Berlin, Germany.

Yucca Valley Continues Dry Morongo Route Support

A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE for Yucca Valley Chamber of Commerce President Ray Rauch is registered by standing chamber members, who signified their approval of the chamber's support of State Highway Commission plans for a Dry Morongo Canyon freeway route. More than 50 high desert area residents, many from neighboring

Splits Openly With Associated CofC at Meeting

YUCCA VALLEY — This high desert community today became "rebel country" in the eyes of the area's Associated Chambers of Commerce as Yucca Valley officials reaffirmed their support of the state's Dry Morongo freeway plans.

Associated chamber representatives failed to swerve the Yucca Valley Chamber of Commerce from its solid stand on the Dry Morongo route as debate mounted into heated personal dispute at a free-swinging chamber meeting here last night.

ARMED WITH A "vote of confidence" cast by some 30 chamber members present, Yucca Valley Chamber President Ray Rauch rededicated his board to directors' resolution supporting the State Highway Commission.

The action virtually closed the door on associated chamber hopes of an alliance with the community in its new drive to persuade the commission into re-routing the proposed four-lane Twenty-nine Palms highway through Little Morongo Canyon.

SCOFFING AT Associated Chamber Vice President Matt Samel's warning that "the Dry Morongo freeway will demolish your town," Dry Morongo proponents urged the state to "carry on" with its plans.

"All I can see in fighting the route is delay for the road," Rauch declared. "The division engineer (C. V. Kane) is drawing up freeway plans now and I can see no reason why he shouldn't carry on."

RAUCH SAID HIS board of directors voted unanimously to stand with the Joshua Tree and Morongo Valley chambers in their support of the highway commission and he refuted allegations that his agency had aligned itself with the associated chamber of the high desert.

"Our chamber of commerce has never been in favor of the Little Morongo Canyon route," Rauch declared, noting that he had talked with the commission, and Board of Supervisors and pledged wholehearted support.

Samel countered with a statement that a 220-foot right-of-way through the center of the valley "will demolish your town."

1,200 Red Jets

Formosa Faces Invasion Threat

TAIPEI, Formosa — (UPI)—The Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry warned today that 1,000 to 1,200 Communist jet warplanes are poised along the South China Coast facing Formosa.

The estimate was made at a news conference by defense spokesman Rear Adm. Liu Hsiang-tu.

THE NATIONALIST government has ordered all military forces, police and civil defense units into wartime alert and is considering proclamation of a national emergency.

These steps were taken after the government reported movement of Russian-built MIG17s to new Communist airbases, one of them only 22 minutes' jet flying time from Taipei.

"Our agents saw the planes move in," Liu said.

A PEIPING BROADCAST Thursday night claimed that four

HE SAID THAT Dry Morongo was frequently given to heavy rock slides and floods and listed facts and figures which, he felt, firmly established the greater value of the Little Morongo Route.

"If Dry Morongo were the best route for the valley, I would be all for it," Samel stated.

Samel's allegations were echoed by Al Stoddard, a director of the Twenty-nine Palms chamber, who noted that "Little Morongo is much better for us" and "is the best route for the whole desert."

BOTH SAMEL AND Stoddard were challenged by E. P. Jones, president of the Morongo Valley Property Owners Association, who read a letter from Gov. Goodwin Knight stating:

"The decision of the highway commission will not be changed unless the state is presented with sufficient engineering reports and facts."

REMARKING THAT the state engineers "know what they're doing," Jones charged that "you Monday morning quarterbacks are trying to re-plan the road — leave it alone."

Other Dry Morongo proponents sniped at the alliance of Desert Hot Springs and Palm Springs with the associated chamber, charging that "they just want to pull our business away from us."

They contended that the Little Morongo plan would serve to funnel business into Desert Hot Springs and the low desert.

Tanker Death Toll Goes to 16

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI)—A critically burned survivor of the collision of two tankers died in Newport Hospital today. This brought the number of known dead to 16.

Of the 35 men who were hospitalized Thursday, 10 were released and 24 were still undergoing treatment today.

DAY-LONG TRIP PLANNED FOR 51 YOUNGSTERS

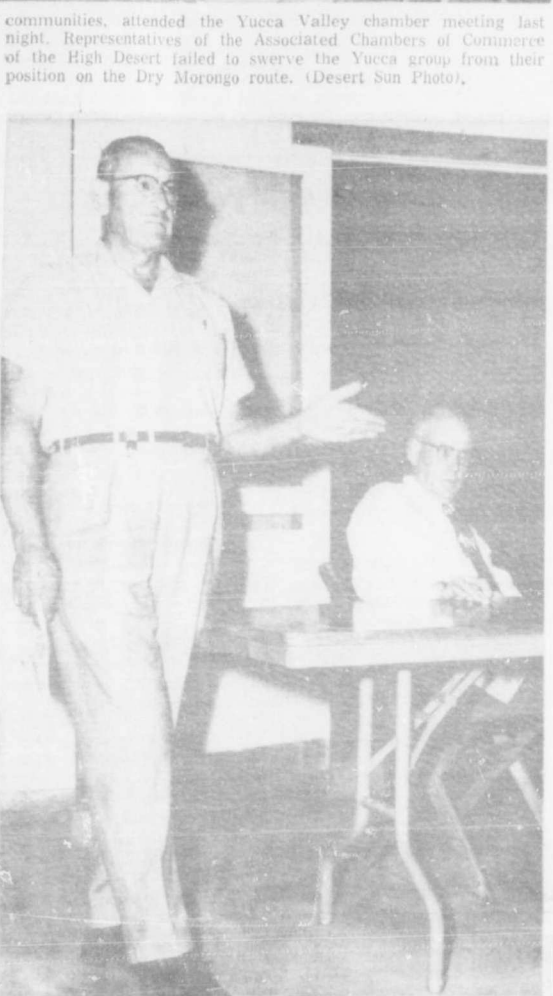

Palm Springs youngsters were today invited on a day-long bus trip to Marineland, compliments of the City Recreation Department and the Youth Center.

City Recreation Superintendent Howard Haddock said junior high and high school boys and girls will board a special bus Aug. 12 for a day-long outing at Marineland and the beach.

Any youngster of junior or senior high school age is eligible to participate, Haddock said, but the trip is limited to the first 51 boys and girls who sign up, he noted.

Participants may sign up at the City Park and Recreation Department office at City Hall or at the Youth Center, not later than Saturday.

A charge of $2 per passenger will include the trip on the bus and admission to Marineland. Haddock said the trip was made possible by the Desert Circus Committee's donation to Palm Springs Youth Council.

Bomb Explosions Shatter Armed Truce Calm of Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Two bomb explosions shattered Beirut's calm today in a grim reminder that anti-government elements have not given up the fight.

Two persons were reported killed and four injured in one of the blasts.

The bombings were the second major outburst of violence since the election of compromise candidate Gen. Fuad Chehab as president July 31. Last Friday, two persons were killed and 15 injured in a bomb blast.

A police sergeant on the scene said two persons were killed and four injured when one bomb exploded in a cafe in the Place des Canons, Beirut's main square.

However, no official confirmation was immediately available.

NO ONE WAS HURT in the other explosion in the Bab El Driss section of the capital.

Scattered shooting echoed on the edges of rebel-held sectors of Beirut Thursday night. But the gunfire was far less than was usually heard in the city before parliament elected Chehab last Thursday to succeed Chamoun.

'Worst Crime'

Kidnaper Goes To Death Calmly

OSSINING, N. Y. (UPI) — Angelo John La Marca was executed Thursday night for the world's most despicable crime — the kidnapping and abandonment of a helpless infant.

La Marca, 33, father of two, confessed he had kidnapped month-old Peter Weinberger two years ago for $2,000 ransom, and then, in a fit of panic, left the child to die under a honeysuckle bush on an isolated roadside.

BUT AS LA MARCA became panicky when he stole the child, he was calm when he went to his death at 8:03 p. m. (p.d.t.) in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair.

The debt-ridden mechanic, who bought a house and a car he could not afford, was alert and almost aggressive when he was led into the death house by the prison

Zuckerman Killed in Auto Crash

Headed Group Developing New Golf Club

Morton B. Zuckerman, 37-year-old developer of the new multi-million dollar Palm Springs Golf Club, was instantly killed in a Detroit, Mich., auto crash yesterday, it was reported here today.

Zuckerman, long prominent as an energetic young builder and developer in Detroit, left here by air for the Michigan city Wednesday night.

HE RENTED A CAR at the Detroit airport and was killed 15 minutes later, at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, when his auto smashed into an abutment on the Detroit expressway.

A native of New York, Zuckerman lived in Detroit for 12 years before moving to his permanent Palm Springs home last month. Zuckerman, his wife and three children resided at 1911 Marshall Way.

AS PRESIDENT of the Westview Development Company, Zuckerman spearheaded the Palm Springs Golf Club project, now under construction on Highway 111 along the east boundary of Section 30.

Meeting in emergency session, Westview directors today named Frank Jannetta, former corporation treasurer, as the new president. Frank Bogert remained as executive vice president.

Westview directors regarded Zuckerman's death as "a great loss," but announced plans to continue the golf club development as scheduled.

ZUCKERMAN LEAVES his widow, Gloria, and three children, Jimmy, 10; Julie, 7; and Jill, 4. Mrs. Zuckerman and the children left Palm Springs for Detroit last night.

Funeral services will be conducted in New York City Sunday.

Gromyko to Head Red Delegation

MOSCOW — (UPI) — The Soviet government announced today it has appointed a delegation headed by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko for the special General Assembly session of the United Nations in New York.

Although Gromyko was named to head the delegation, there had been some feeling in Moscow that Premier Nikita Khrushchev would go to New York later on.

Nautilus Takes Polar Sea Trip Under Ice Cap

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. atomic submarine Nautilus has completed a polar sea trip under the Arctic ice cap, the White House disclosed today.

The successful journey was revealed when President Eisenhower pinned a Legion of Merit on Cmdr. W. R. Anderson, who commanded the vessel until he was removed from it by helicopter Thursday night to be brought to Washington for today's ceremony.

ACTION DEFERRED ON EQUALIZATION BILL UNTIL 1959

The House of Representatives Committee on Interior Affairs has deferred action on the Agua Caliente Indian Tribal Equalization bill until next year, it was learned today by The Desert Sun in a special dispatch from Washington, D. C.

The dispatch contained no mention of the plan by the Bureau of Indian Affairs to equalize all Indians in Palm Springs by using all Tribal Reserve land.

Introduced too late for action this session of Congress, the bill was passed over "without prejudice," said the dispatch, which quoted acting chairman of the Interior Committee, Wayne Aspinall, (D-Colo.).

IT'S A BOY FOR BING AND KATHY! BORN 11:32 A.M.

Actress Kathy Grant, second wife of Crooner Bing Crosby, gave birth to a seven-pound, nine-ounce son at 11:32 a.m. today at the Queens of Angeles Hospital in Los Angeles.

Hospital officials said both mother and son were "doing fine." The 23-year-old actress was brought to the hospital at 3:45 a.m. by her husband, who immediately reserved a room next to hers.

Mrs. Crosby's physician, Dr. Abner Moss, said the young actress "is in good condition and spirits."

He said delivery was normal "with no complications." Moss said the baby had not been expected until Aug. 17.

Crosby, 34, and the former Olive K. Grandstaff, of West Columbia, Texas, were wed Oct. 24, 1957, at St. Anne's Catholic Church in Las Vegas, Nev. It was her first marriage.

Arrest in San Bernardino Discloses Post Office Theft

An arrest in San Bernardino yesterday brought about the disclosure that the Palm Springs Post Office, along with many others in Southern California, had been the victim of a series of mail thefts, and at the same time brought possible solution to three local check forgery cases.

Billie Levi, 30, of Cabazon, was arrested by San Bernardino police after he allegedly attempted to cash a forged check for $82 at the Security First National Bank in that city.

AT THE TIME of his arrest Levi had in the compartment of his car some 300 letters, 252 of which were addressed to the California Water and Telephone Company in Palm Springs, and a packet of 189 stolen checks, not in envelopes. The packet of checks totaled about $3,000.

According to Postal Inspector R. A. Cowan of the Riverside office, the suspect broke down and admitted the forgery and reportedly told the inspector that the local post office box of the California Water and Telephone Company "had been left open" and he had taken the mail out of it.

THE THEFT, PROBABLY taking place on or about July 12, was not noticed by either the post office or the California Water and Telephone Co.

Doak Davis, telephone company manager, said this morning that the letters, returned to them by postal authorities this morning, contained correspondence and telephone bill payments. He added that many subscribers had been sent disconnect notices, and "it will mean the notifying of each of these subscribers."

DETECTIVE RICHARD Harries said this morning that the arrest of Levi may be a lead into the solution of three local forgery cases currently under local investigation.

At the time of his arrest, Levi reportedly had identification in his pocket in the name of L. E. Holt of Banning, a name which was used to endorse three checks, each in the amount of $76, cashed at a local hotel and two local business houses.

"Although the description does not match that which was given to us by local merchants," said Harries, "it may lead us to an accomplice."

Employment Up, But Not Up To July Expectations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Employment rose slightly while unemployment edged downward in July, but both changes were less favorable than had been expected, the government reported today.

As a result, the rate of unemployment, a figure adjusted to take account of the normal seasonal swing, climbed to 7.3 per cent last month from a 6.8 per cent in June.

IN JULY, 1957, it was 4.2 per cent.

A joint monthly report by the Commerce and Labor Departments said employment increased by 198,000 to 85,179,000 in July and unemployment dropped by 143,000 to 5,294,000.

THE REPORT SAID these developments meant that the "overall job picture did not change significantly in July."

The AFL-CIO took a gloomier view. It said in a monthly report on economic trends that unemployment would climb to 5,500,000 by next winter. A pickup in business activity, it said, would not by itself wipe out unemployment.

Navy Blimp Sets Arctic Record

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy blimp has crossed the Arctic Circle and is now farther north than any other non-rigid airship in history, the Pentagon announced today.

The Navy reported that a lone polar bear witnessed the precedent-setting entry of the blimp into the Arctic Circle Thursday night in the Repulse Bay section of the Melville Peninsula.

Asks Russia To Carry UN Proceedings

No Hint Given As to Whether He Will Participate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower endorsed today the U. S. challenge to Russia to broadcast the United Nations General Assembly proceedings on the Middle East behind the Iron Curtain.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President was glad that the U. N. Security Council adopted a resolution calling for the special assembly session on the Middle East.

HAGERTY SAID the President was "particularly pleased" by the challenge issued by U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. for the Russians to carry the assembly proceedings behind the Iron Curtain by radio so that the people there could "judge the true facts for themselves."

The White House gave no hint whether the President will make a personal appearance at the assembly to lead off the American part of the debate. He told his news conference Wednesday he would be willing to participate in the emergency session if necessary.

AT THE SESSION, the United States is expected to seek a firm pledge that all nations refrain from meddling in the turbulent Middle East. This would give U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld time to work out a long-range formula to quarantine the area against "indirect aggression."

This was reported today by official sources as President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles shaped up American strategy for the emergency U. N. assembly on the Middle East scheduled to get underway late today but not get down to business until next week.

Promises of stepped-up American economic aid for the Middle East are expected to be made only if a satisfactory degree of political stability is assured, officials said.

Justice Court Prohibited From Further Action

A writ of prohibition has been issued by Superior Court Judge Bertram Jones against the Palm Springs Judicial District Court, prohibiting it from proceeding with the case involving Joe and Tutor Wollam, who were arrested last March 25 on charges of disturbing the peace and refusing to disperse on a command by a police officer.

Judge Jones, who heard the plea on the writ while sitting as special sessions judge in Department 4 of the Superior Court in Indio, has had the matter under submission since April 25.

Joe Wollam, manager of the Culinary and Bartenders Union Local 535 in Palm Springs, and his brother, Tutor, were arrested originally on charges of violation of the loudspeaker ordinance of the City of Palm Springs, but the charges were later changed to the other violations.

Human Torch Linked to Hoffa Home Local by Sale of Car

FLINT, Mich. — 675 — Accused arsonists Frank and Herman Kierdorf today were linked to the home local of Teamsters Union president James H. Hoffa through the private sale of a Cadillac.

State Attorney General Paul L. Adams said he was ready to charge the Kierdorfs and a third man with setting fire to the Latrobe Cleaners shop here.

"THERE ARE indications of other charges, also," Adams said. Frank Kierdorf, 34, the "human torch" who stumbled into St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at nearby Pontiac at 1 a. m. Monday, burned covering 80 per cent of his body — died at 12:35 p. m. Thursday.

Herman Kierdorf, 64, Frank's uncle and like Frank an ex-convict and ex-Teamsters business agent, was missing but police got on his trail Thursday by locating the Cadillac he sold. The car was owned by Local 299, Hoffa's home local, and the dealer who bought it said a Local 299 official first signed it over.

ADAMS, OAKLAND County Prosecutor Frederick Zeim and

Ziem's assistant, George F. Taylor, backtracked completely the sale of Frank Kierdorf that he was "taken for a ride" by two men who threw fuel on him and set fire to it.

A belated inspection by state fire marshals turned up a five-gallon gasoline can and other evidence of arson in the dry cleaning shop. A burned flashlight was found which may have been owned by Frank Kierdorf.

THERE WERE reports, unconfirmed by Adams and the prosecutors, that burned flesh was found in the Cadillac, and burn marks on clothing in Kierdorf's home.

The investigators believed Frank Kierdorf was caught in the shop by his own arson. Herman and the third man drove him home, tried to treat his burns and then took him to the hospital, rehearsing the story he was to tell.

Donald Keller, 34, Detroit, held as the suspected "third man" was questioned for four hours Thursday.

Tropical Storm Sweeps Over Island of Oahu

HONOLULU — 676 — A tropical storm which has already taken one life swept over the island of Oahu today with winds of 30 to 70 miles per hour.

The disturbance struck the island of Hawaii early Thursday, causing a plane crash that killed Walter Moniz, 25, Hilo. His plane crashed on a sugar plantation, barely missing a group of workers, as Moniz attempted to land in strong winds.

Injured in the crash were Fred Jong, Honolulu, and Constantine Gofas, 26, University of Hawaii student from San Francisco.

Two Hilo radio stations were off the air temporarily when wind knocked down their aerials.

The weather bureau issued a gale warning for all Hawaiian waters today and warned there may be lowland flooding.

All-White Jury Acquits Sheriff Of Death Charge

WATER VALLEY, Miss. — 676 — An all-white jury Thursday acquitted a Mississippi sheriff of charges he beat a Negro prisoner to death in a case tried before the same judge who presided over the Emmett Till case.

The dead man's wife immediately announced she would leave this tiny community for good because she was "scared."

THE JURY, MADE up of farmers and mechanics, deliberated 28 minutes before finding Yaobusha County Sheriff J. G. (Buster) Treloar, 36, innocent of manslaughter in the death of deliveryman Woodrow Wilson Daniels.

While the jury was out, Circuit Judge Curtis Swango warned the courtroom crowd: "There must be absolutely no demonstrations when the verdict is read." Swango also presided over the trial in 1955 of two white men accused of killing Emmett Till, a young Negro who allegedly whistled at a white woman. The men were acquitted.

BUT THE VERDICT was greeted by groans from a gallery of Negroes who had observed the four-day proceedings from the courtroom balcony. There were no further demonstrations.

"I'm getting out of Water Valley for good," said Mrs. Annie Margaret Daniels, the Negro widow. "I'm hurt and I'm scared. I don't know how I'm ever going to pay Wilson's medical and funeral expenses and take care of our five children."

IN JACKSON, MISS., the state chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People issued a statement saying the acquittal "should indicate to Negroes in Mississippi that they should expect no justice in Mississippi courts."

Prosecution witnesses told the jury Treloar beat Daniels repeatedly with a blackjack while the Negro was in jail on a bootlegging charge.

Treloar admitted striking Daniels in defense of himself and other prisoners, but denied hitting the deliveryman on the head.

After the trial he picked up the blackjack and put it in his pocket.

Florida Studies Prove Los Angeles Smog Really 'Hurts'

MIAMI — 677 — It isn't just invidious pride that makes the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce weep over their famous smog.

The stuff really hurts.

The University of Miami Medical School, working in conjunction with Los Angeles air pollution experts, has just completed a study of the California city's smog.

The findings show that smog contains irritating substances that burn the eyes and bring tears.

DR. WILLIAM B. Deichmann, who heads the research team, said the offending substances, known as nitro-olefins, are found in automobile exhaust fumes.

Girl May Lose Voice Due To Ammonia Fumes Damage

VENTURA — 678 — Linda Baudizon, 13, today faced the prospect of permanently losing her voice after her vocal chords were damaged when she was caught in a cloud of ammonia fumes.

Doctors at Ventura County Hospital said the girl has lost the power of speech. They added that it would be about six months before it could be ascertained whether the girl would speak again.

THE GIRL and 64 other persons, all residents of the Pepper Tree Trailer Court at Santa Paula, inhaled fumes after a gas line broke while workmen were engaged in a tank-to-truck loading operation.

Two other children, John Thompson, 7, and his sister, Debra, 5, were in serious condition from the effects of pneumonia which set in due to the poisonous gas.

New S&H Gift Shop Opened At Market

A new store opened in Palm Springs today, but this showcase shop will never echo the jingle of a cash register — it doesn't traffic in cash of any kind.

Green stamps are the only medium of exchange accepted for the wide range of merchandise offered on heavily-laden counters — S&H Green Stamps, that is.

The colorfully decorated shop at the Farmers Market is a new S&H gift shop, offering, for the first time in the desert area, immediate redemption of stamps distributed by area merchants.

Managed by Ann Wallace, the store was opened by Fred Wilkins, merchandise manager for the S&H Company's Los Angeles area, and stocks a complete line of catalog gifts.
